Course Evaluation Summaries

Department of Political Science
Barnard College

These scores are computed from the anonymous student course evaluations officially collected by the Barnard College Political Science Department at the end of each course. Each evaluation form has a different set of questions included, specifically designed for the type of course in question. All rankings are on a 1 to 5 scale, where 5 = "excellent." The scores listed here are those averaged from the summary questions, at the end of each evaluation form turned in.
